- The SteakChamp Thermometer, a first-of-its-kind product that is engineered to ensure the perfect steak every time. It's perfect for the steak lover on your list and simple to use. The cook just inserts the 3 1/2-inch device into the side of a steak, grills it until the red LED light double-flashes, and then removes it from the grill. When the flashing light stops, the steak is at the perfect temperature to eat. The SteakChamp is available in four different model options: Rare, Medium Rare, Medium, and Medium Well. Find it at Amazon.com or SurLaTable.com.
